

Australian History Cycle

(Based on CM's model and adapted for Australia)

Form 1 (Heroic Age=1000-1600; Chronological study: 1606-Present)

*A three year cycle, each column represents the time period to be covered in any year. There is an option for subsequent children come into the rotation wherever any older Form 1 children are, cycling back to the beginning as needed, rather than starting with the Heroic Age year--a plan CM included for home schoolrooms.

Heroic Age (Aboriginal Culture and History)	1606-1900	1901-Present
---	-----------	--------------

Form 2-3 (Modern Streams: 1000-Present; Ancient Stream: Ancient History through 1000 AD)

*A four year cycle, the eldest child begins in the first column, but subsequent children join in wherever the eldest is at that point.

Australian History	1000-1600 (Aboriginal Culture and Studies)	1606-1800 (Exploration and Settlement)	1800-1900 (Colonial history)	1901-Present (Federation on)
British History	1000-1600 (more read in this stream than Australian this year)	1600-1800	1800-1900	1901-Present
Ancient History	Ancient Near East	Ancient Greece	Ancient Rome	Early Middle Ages (to 1000 A.D.)

Form 4-6 (Modern Streams: 1500-Present; Ancient Stream: Ancient History through 1500 AD)

*This cycle is also four years, Form 3A eldest students will cycle back to 1000-1600 for their final year of Form 3, and will begin the Forms 4-6 rotation in the second column.

Australian History	1500-1600 (Aboriginal Culture and History)	1606-1800 (Exploration and Settlement)	1800-1900 (Colonial history)	1901-Present (Federation on)
European History (SE Asian region will receive emphasis in Geography rather than History)	1500-1600 (more read in this stream than Australian this year)	1600-1800	1800-1900	1901-Present
Ancient History	Ancient Near East	Ancient Greece	Ancient Rome	Middle Ages (to 1500 A.D.)